

Miss Bailey Is Guest of Honor

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Thompson, 2318 Redondo boulevard, last Thursday evening, a very prettily appointed pre-nuptial "shower" was given in honor of Miss Lillie Bailey, who is soon to be the bride of Mr. Frank R. Hughes, a promising young business man of Torrance.

Her many friends came to wish her "bon voyage" on her approaching marriage, and all the happiness the bluebirds can bring. Bouquets of lilies, carnations and ferns were used as decorations throughout the house. The many pretty and useful gifts were presented to Miss Bailey in a large white and pink box, covered with Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas, preceded by little Miss Cora Hewins, who carried a golden "good luck" slipper filled with rice to shower on the happy couple.

This was followed by musical selections from the gracious hostess and many of the guests. Delicious refreshments were then served, which were highly enjoyed by everyone. Many more good wishes for the guest of honor and the delightful evening was at an end. Those fortunate to be present included: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hewins, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Chicoine, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Secombe, Mrs. S. A. Litch, Miss Ethel Litch, Raymond Thompson, Miss Lillie Bailey, Frank Hughes, Miss Cora Hewins, Master George Hewins, of Torrance; Mrs. Hattie Simmons, Long Beach; D. H. Leonard, Redondo; Mrs. Beulah Meyers and little daughter Betty, Gardena; Mrs. Ada Arthur, Springdale; Mrs. B. K. Rodgers, Gardena.

ALL LIT UP

The installation of a monster electric sign for the Torrance Theatre, placed directly above a handsome Marquis built this week, has been under way the past few days and the 500 lamp globes will blaze forth in an array of illumination next Saturday night. Manager J. C. McVey of the theatre, planned this improvement some time ago and with its completion will add greatly to the splendor of this section of town.
